CHALLENGE CELEBRATION FINALE

Since we have been working in isolation for so long, we want you all to see what has been done. Please send a submission of one of the following to celebrate our recent work:

- ❖ a musical submission from within your family bubble (which might include several siblings in the orchestras)
- ❖ an individual musical submission
- ❖ a spoken message to your fellow orchestra members
- ❖ a photo of a printed message that might be important in this time
- ❖ your Challenge 6 submission with a spoken message at the end of it
- ❖ permission to use one of the video challenges you have already submitted that you would love to share with others (rep or bonus)
- ❖ some other idea that you have that you consider to be appropriate to this time.

Call the email “Celebration” and send it - no later than Monday, May 4 - to either:

calos.senior@gmail.com or

calos.concert@gmail.com

The Finale will air on our YouTube stream on Thursday, May 7 at 7 pm.

CALOS UPDATE CHALLENGE # 5

This week’s selections for Challenge 5 were, “Kopprasch” (Senior Orchestra), and “March to the Scaffold” (Concert Orchestra.)

This Week’s Challenge #5 Draw Winners

Senior Orchestra – Emma Hamilton

Emma (Clarinet) is 17 years old and completing grade 12 at St. Bonaventure’s College. She has been a member of Calos for 6 years! Outside of Calos, Emma is heavily involved with Shallaway Youth Choir, as well as her school choirs, Wind Ensemble, and Senior Jazz Band. She enjoys ensemble performing because everyone works together as a team to create something amazing. Some of her musical accomplishments include achieving the highest mark in RCM level 7 clarinet in Atlantic Canada (2019), placing 3rd at the Seghizzi International Choral competition with Shallaway Youth Choir (2019), and being a member of the 2019 Rotary Jazz Band. Emma enjoys volunteering at The Gathering Place and with Fridays for Future. Emma looks forward to studying clarinet at MUN's School of Music in the fall. Emma was the lucky recipient of a $20 Subway gift card, thanks to her Bonus Challenge 5.
